5. Approval of minutes for January '23 Meeting

6. Little Egg Harbor has been renewed as a member of the Association of New Jersey Environmental Commissions (ANJEC.) They received our membership dues this week. Please visit the website—anjec.org/memberships/—for a list of included benefits and available resources.

7. LEH EC Web Page: As per Katie Baker we are waiting on the webmaster to give her some dates and times that he can meet to discuss our page on the township website.

8. Frog Pond Student Government is volunteering for our Earth Day Cleanup. I also suggested that they participate in a service learning project with us. Waiting for a response from Mr. Henderson, who is the advisor for student government, and also a 6th grade science teacher.

9. Block 325.89, Lot 19, 449 Twin Lakes Blvd. DEP Permit

10. Brita Forseberg from Save the Barnegat Bay will be a guest speaker at our next meeting on March 23rd, to share more about her role and how we can work together over the upcoming year.

11. Township committee is discussing what they would like to include, of our proposal, in the 2023 Township budget.

12. Environmental hero award: This award recognizes community members for their outstanding service to the environment. Next steps: Brainstorm nomination criteria/questions and create something like a google form that can be submitted to us via our web page.
