Mr. Art Mooney: Asked for an update on the township's repayment of the FEMA loan.

Mayor Crea explained the meeting regarding the loan has been postponed until May 6, 2020.

Mr. Art Mooney: Asked if there will be an extension of real estate taxes.

Township Attorney Jean Cipriani explained at this time legislation is debating the matter and we will have more information at a later date.

Mr. Art Mooney: Mentioned since the governor mandated wearing a mask in public there is a shortage of them. He asked if the town has any plans to assist people in need of groceries.

Deputy Mayor Kehm mentioned there have been discussions with OEM regarding delivering food to residents in need.

Captain Hawkins explained the public is urged to use any kind of face covering which includes a mask, scarf and items of that nature. He mentioned it is difficult to get masks to first responders at this time.

Mr. Art Mooney: Commended Deputy Mayor Kehm and the committee for their show of transparency and wished everyone a Happy Easter.
