

FULL-TIME SUPERVISING MECHANIC – LITTLE EGG HARBOR, OCEAN COUNTY

Full-time position. Candidate must meet NJDOP requirements. Applicant must have managerial experience and, under direction, take lead over staff engaged in performing mechanical work, including but not limited to: the maintenance, repair and servicing of various types of township motor vehicles; the maintenance, repair and servicing of motorized construction equipment such as backhoes, fire apparatus, trucks, landscape equipment, diesel engines, small engines, and similar equipment; the distribution of work assignments among employees according to respective work flow; the observance of the status of work performed; the guidance of lower level mechanics and assisting when needed; the maintenance of all records; and adjusting any necessary work accordingly. Candidate must be able to work for prolonged periods of time, including during emergencies and inclement weather, and aid in public works tasks when necessary. Candidate must possess three (3) years of varied experience with regard to the maintenance and repair of various types of motor vehicles and/or construction equipment and (1) year of training in automotive technology at an accredited college or vocational school. A year of experience may be substituted for the educational requirement. Appointees are required to possess a valid driver's license and a Class B CDL license is preferred. Competitive salary, full benefits. Applications must be received by February 9, 2021. Little Egg Harbor Township is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Please send resume and references to kmetrick@leht.com or mail to: Karyn Metrick, Human Resources, 665 Radio Road, Little Egg Harbor, New Jersey 08087.